

No. Large impressive fountains like ours require trained staff to set-up and operate. We make sure you get the results you want by creating a continuously smooth flowing impressive fountain that is operated up to current safety and health standards. But, don't worry, all our operating services are included in the rental fee. We take care of you all along the way!